First responders locate missing person in waters off Nawiliwili

LĪHU'E –At approximately 6:00 am Friday, a body was found by a Coast Guard helicopter 50 to 60 yards off the shore.

A Coast Guard cutter then recovered the individual and administered first aid and resuscitation efforts. He was then transported to the Coast Guard station at Nawiliwili where medics relieved the crew who had recovered the man. Resuscitation efforts were continued as he was transported to the Wilcox Hospital emergency room.

At approximately 7:45 am emergency care providers pronounced the man as deceased. The identity of the individual shall remain confidential until family members have been properly notified.
